*Notes:—*After a long service in the Districts of Tinnevely and Madura, where he won the sincere respect and affection of the people, he settled in 1867 at Kodaikanal and lived at Pambar house, until within a few weeks of his death. To him are due nearly all the improvements which this Settlement possesses. A true friend to the poor, no one however humble appealed to him in vain, while his upright character, his love of justice and his kindly heart endeared him to all classes of community, European and Native. And thus he bore without abuse, the grand old name of Gentleman. This monument is erected by a few of his friends as a mark of their admiration and esteem.

RAMNAD CHRIST CHURCH COMPOUND.

1	8th January 1810.		WHEATLEY, WILLIAM C.	WILLIAM C. WHEATLEY. In sure and certain hope of a happy resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, here repositeth the remains of WILLIAM C. WHEATLEY, who departed this life the 8th January 1810, aged 38 years and 6 months, who with the fewest failings possessed the noblest virtues of the mind. He was a sincere Christian, a true friend, a tender parent, the most indulgent and affectionate of husbands. In testimony of her irreparable loss, this monument is erected as a small tribute to his much esteemed memory and many amiable qualities by his affectionate and disconsolate widow Elizabeth Wheatley.

2	7th October 1810.	MARTINZ, MANUEL	Colonel MANUEL MARTINZ, late Commandant of this Garrison and District. Born in March 1740, died on the 7th October 1810, aged 70 years and 7 months, after an honorable service of 50 years. Note. —Colonel Welsh, author of an excellent book entitled "Military Reminiscences," has left the following description of this personage: "The Ramnad fort is indeed only interesting to Indians as having been, for upwards of 80 years, the residence of Colonel Martinz of the Nabob's service; who commanded the place, as well as a regularly disciplined provincial battalion, bearing his own name. Of all the hospitable men in the most hospitable country in the world, this extraordinary old gentleman stood foremost. He had a large well-furnished house, and received with a hearty welcome as his guests all who chose to come to it. He had a cellar or godown as it is there styled, full of the choicest liquors, and amongst the rest, pipes of Madeira of various ages, slung by ropes from the roof, to which he decreed an "Europe voyage" as he called it every time the door was opened, by making a servant swing them about for some minutes. His wine was never fined, and seldom bottled, but drawn for immediate use. He was a man of few words, and directed his servants by snapping his fingers, or by whistling. A native of Savoy, or Portugal, of a diminutive form being under the middle size, with a visage more resembling a baboon than the human species, and manners the most uncouth and outré, Colonel Martinz was still the father of his corps, and the kind friend of all his little community; and to sum up his character in a few words, was generally known, much beloved, and wanted only the outward forms of religion to be universally respected and esteemed."
3	9th October 1810.	SEWARD, J. B.	J. B. SEWARD, 24th Regiment, N. I. who departed this life 9th October 1810, aged 34 years. He rests in the hope of a joyful resurrection. Note. —Captain J. Breton Seward married Miss Sarah Isaacks, August 1804.
4	9th October 1813.	CERRY, EUGENIE	EUGENIE CERRY. Heretofore the mortal remains of Eugenie, wife of George F. CERRY Esquire, who left this world for a better on the 9th October 1813. Possessed of every amiable quality which could call forth love and esteem and eminently gifted with those qualifications which claim respect, she was an affectionate wife, a faithful friend, and truly good woman. This tribute of respect to her memory is erected by a mournful husband. Note. —Mr. Cherry died at Cembacanam, 10th February 1827. He was eldest son of John Hector Cherry, acting Governor of Bombay in 1802. "Mr Cherry and Mrs. Bridget Josephine Eugenie Irwin were united in holy matrimony according to the rubric of the Church of England this 2nd day of June 1812 at half past ten o'clock A. M. by R. Andrews Assistant Magistrate. Witnesses J. S. Sullivan (C. S.) John G. Turnbull (C. S.), Lieut-Col. Shakespear, C. O. Shakespear." She was the widow of William Irwin, a Madras Civilian, who died childless, 2nd September 1810, off Malacca. Her previous marriage took place at Karikal, April 20th 1802, when she is described as Mlle Eugenie du Perron, daughter of the late Colonel du Perron of the Regiment of Pondicherry. Her first husband's father was the well known Eyles Irwin (1751—1817) who married Honor Brooke. He was dismissed from the Service in consequence of the part he played in denouncing the deposition of Governor Pigot but returned to Madras with Lord Macartney, whom he afterwards accompanied on the embassy to China. He was one of the first to take the overland route. He wrote two volumes of travels and innumerable books of poetry of the age, and was a friend of Hayley. His parents were James Irwin, H. E. I. C. S. of Hazlegh and Sarah Beale, daughter of Mary Beale "from St. Helena," baptized at Calcutta Feb. 28th 1728 and buried at St-Helena 8th Sept. 1792. Sarah Beale married 3 times, (1) Captain Henry Palmer, of the family of Lord Selborne, a private merchant, who died in 1748; (2) James Irwin, who died 20th June 1752; and (3) Rev. Robert Maplettoft, chaplain of Fort William 1750—77, one of the most interesting persons in the ecclesiastical history of Bengal. Maplettoft's portrait hangs in the vestry room of St. John's Church, Calcutta. He went through the siege by Surajah-ud-Dowlah, only to die at Fulta of his sufferings. He and his wife are honorably mentioned by Holwell. Mr Hyde informs us that Mrs. Maplettoft "upheld the cause of the pretender to her latest days and used, so tradition says, to fling a pinch of snuff over her shoulder in contempt of the Hanoverians, when King George was prayed for in Church."

5	25th April 1817.	MILLER, HENRY ...	HENRY MILLER, Lieut and Adjutant HENRY MILLER of the 4th N. V. Bn., who served the Honorable Company 23 years. He was a sincere Christian and an affectionate husband whom it pleased God to call away at the age of 48 on the 25th April in the year of our Lord 1817. This tribute of affection is erected by his disconsolate and affectionate wife Ann Miller.
6	9th March 1819	ELLIS, FRANCIS WHITE.	FRANCIS WHYTE ELLIS Esquire of the Madras Civil Service, whose valuable life was suddenly terminated by a fatal accident at this place, on the 9th March 1819 in the 41st year of his age. Uniting activity of mind with versatility of genius, he displayed the same ardour and happy sufficiency on whatever his varied talents were employed. Conversant with the Hindu Languages and Literature of the Peninsula, he was loved and esteemed by the Natives of India with whom he associated intimately, and his kind and playful disposition endeared him to his own countrymen among whom he was distinguished no less by his capacity as a public servant than by a mind fraught with intelligence and information & alive to every object of interest or utility. The College of Fort Saint George which owes its existence to him is a lasting memorial of his reputation as an oriental scholar, and this stone has been erected as a tribute of the affectionate regard of his European and Native friends. (The monument is of marble.)

Notes.—On the other side of this monument is an inscription in Tamil, a translation of which follows:—Sacred to the memory of him called ELLIS who entered into his rest, to the deep sorrow of the Goddess of Earth, on the 9th March 1819 A. D. (1741 of the Sāvāṇa Era) at Muvai, otherwise called Ramnad, during one of his tours from Madras to the Districts of the South. He was deeply learned in the English language, that language which spreads like a creeper penetrating into every nook and corner of the world. In his profound learning, he shone like a sun, wherever he went, dispelling the darkness of ignorance. He was well versed not only in the 3 kinds of Tamil, but also in Sanscrit. His Tamil was as sweet as fresh Ambrosia; he translated into English all that bore upon litigation and morals in the Code of Manu. He wrote a wonderful version in English on the 1st part of the sacred Kural of Tiruvalluvar which treats of virtue. Again, he translated into English inscriptions on stones and copper plates reciting the mutual duties of Kings and of their subjects. He caused 27 wells and tanks to be dug that people might be benefited.

Note.—He arrived in India in 1796 and was all his life a great oriental scholar. Sir Walter Elliot in presenting to the library of the India office a valuable Tamil manuscript, the Tembarani of Beschi, obtained by Mr. Ellis, gives the following account of him in the pages of the Athenæum. "For upwards of twenty years he devoted all his spare time to the cultivation of Sanscrit and the various dialects peculiar to Southern India. Having determined to publish nothing until he had exhausted every available source of information, he had amassed a vast amount of material, the elaboration of which would have shed a flood of light on the still obscure history of that region, and likewise anticipated much of the knowledge of its philology and literature which recent re-
